Dear Principals, Parish Priests, Teachers and Parents,
The National Catholic Education Convention is less than one year out! The organisers of the Convention need your assistance. Don’t miss out on this fantastic opportunity. CLAIM THE DATE!

---

National Catholic Education Convention

21-23 September, 2011
Adelaide Convention Centre, South Australia

You can help shape the future of Catholic education in Australia at the National Catholic Education Convention. International and national speakers will present contemporary perspectives on Catholic education, identity and faith formation. Educators, parish ministers, clergy, religious, researchers and parents are invited to participate in workshops and discussions which will focus on the following key areas:

- Community
- Religious identity
- Governance
- Teaching and learning
- Leadership
- Technology

For more details – or to register interest – please visit: www.nceconv2011.com.au